

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration!

One Dream, A National Influence, A World of People

Come to the California African American Museum for this special weekend of celebrations. Saturday, January 14 at 2pm is the screening of the documentary film Fertile Ground followed by a discussion with co-directors Rosie Lee Hooks and S. Pearl Sharp. At the Target Sundays at CAAM program on Sunday, January 15, see live performances at 1pm with co-host Grey's Anatomy's Chandra Wilson and Jeffrey Anderson Gunter, the Jung Im Lee Korean Dance Academy, musician Bobby Matos, inNate Praise Choir, and singers Joram Dugay, Carol Dennis, Nelson Jimenez and Brittany Acosta.

Return Monday, January 16 for our Cake for King program with arts workshops, film screenings and storytelling with Babe and Art Evans. CAAM will share a delicious Dr. King birthday cake at 2pm! Free guided tours of exhibitions too!
